

UK/Ireland Planning Research Conference 'Meet and Greet' 11th September @ 1900, Brindley Place

Organised for those arriving pre-conference on the evening of Sunday 11th - there is an informal 'Meet and Greet' event in central Birmingham.

Please email pgrnet@bcu.ac.uk if you wish to attend or for further information.

All welcome !

Where: Brindley Place (red circle on adjacent map). We will meet at the Band-Stand, which is located in the centre of Brindley Place, beside the bridge, before proceeding to the venue.

Time: 1900

What's the plan? There will be a table area booked in 'All Bar One' to sit and order food, drink and network.

PhD Researcher/Early Career Researchers Social 12th September (directly after Monday's conference programme)

Organised by Birmingham City University's Postgraduate Research Network (PGRNet) a second social event, exclusive to PhD and early career researchers will take place following Monday's conference programme.

PGRNet

The social will allow PhD students and early career researchers to mingle, reflect, chat a little and generally relax after the first day of the conference. The venues are situated a short walk from the conference centre, so more specific announcements will be made on the day. For more information please e-mail: pgrnet@bcu.ac.uk
